

FACTSWHAT DOES First Federal Savings Bank
DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?	Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.
What?	The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Social Security number and Income ■ Account balances and Payment history ■ Credit history and Credit scores When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.
How?	All financial companies need to share customer's personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customer's personal information; the reasons First Federal Savings Bank chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does First Federal share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you	No	N/A
For joint marketing with other financial companies	No	N/A
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences	No	N/A
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness	No	N/A
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	N/A

Questions?	Call 800-422-3372 or go to www.firstfederalbanking.com
-------------------	---

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

First Federal Savings Bank

What we do

How does First Federal Savings Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We limit availability of your personal information to those employees who require it to provide you with the best possible customer service.

How does First Federal Savings Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or deposit money
- Pay your bills or apply for a loan
- Use your debit card

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- First Federal Savings Bank does not have any affiliates.

Nonaffiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.

- First Federal Savings Bank does not share information with any nonaffiliates.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

- First Federal Savings Bank has no joint marketing agreements.

Other important information

First Federal does not share information with retailers, airlines, or publishers. Also, if you have an account that begins with the number 15, please note that this is not an actual account number. It was used as part of your loan application process.